

Dress Code Policy

Effective March 1, 2019

All patrons utilizing the Officers' Club must abide by the following:

The dress code for the Club is governed by the good taste and decency of the patrons. All patrons of the Club should enjoy the facilities and not be uncomfortable because of other patron's lack of good taste in dress.

O'Lounge

All hours, male patrons must wear a collared shirt.
Women must dress in an equally tasteful manner.
No t-shirts or tank tops permitted.

Dinner

From 1730 until the close of the Club, all male patrons must wear a collared shirt. Women must dress in an equally tasteful manner. No t-shirts or tank tops permitted.

At all other times and locations within the Club, attire will be in accordance with Base Order 1020.6 and Base Order 1020.7.

Entrance will be refused to those unsuitably dressed.

Thank you for your cooperation.
